

Joy Society Community Guidelines (Code of Conduct for Members)

Welcome to the Joy Society community! This is a safe space to engage with other professionals seeking wellness.

The Joy Society Membership Community is self-moderated, which means that the community moderates itself, with the help of a team of online community moderators. There's no time lag when community members post, but they can mark certain posts as inappropriate, which notifies admins and temporarily removes the post for moderation.

We want everyone who is part of our community to have their voice heard.

We encourage your feedback and aim to respond to your comments as soon as possible. While we do moderate this community, we welcome open discussion.

To help everyone enjoy our community, we ask that when you post and engage with other members, you keep in mind the following:

1. We don't allow defamatory, indecent, offensive, profane, discriminatory, misleading, unlawful or threatening comments.
2. Personal attacks, name-calling, trolling and abuse will not be tolerated.
3. Messages and posts should not contain promotional material, special offers, job offers, product announcements, or solicitation for services. Joy Society reserves the right to remove such messages and potentially ban sources of those solicitations.
4. We reserve the right to delete comments at our discretion and block any repeat offenders. We will remove content that is fraudulent, deceptive or misleading.
5. Coordinated group attacks will not be tolerated.
6. Respect that other people in the community have had different life experiences and may have a different perspective than yours. We welcome different viewpoints.
7. Our community is a public place. Don't post personal information that you would not be comfortable sharing with a stranger. We recommend that you don't post any information that may identify you or anyone else, such as your address, email address or phone number.
8. Please be mindful about the content you choose to share. The purpose of this space is to facilitate connections and relationships among members, and allow us to provide information, education, and resources. Please ensure that what you are posting and sharing is relevant to our mission.

If you have a question about these guidelines, or a service we offer, please get in touch with the "Joy Society Admin" account, or send an email to info@joysociety.com.
